

Coronavirus eLearning Help

- The EdAlive team are here to assist
- Automated Adaptive Learning
- Ideal for disrupted times

A family business serving educators since 1986 and located in Armidale, Regional NSW.

Unprecedented times

In a matter of weeks, the Coronavirus pandemic has caused disruption to education around the world.

Here in Australia it is clear that there will be major disruption to schooling. Australian Educators must take swift and decisive action to leverage alternative teaching methods including online learning to keep students engaged from home.

EdAlive's friendly team is here to help

We know that many schools are looking for assistance with online learning at this time. With 35 years of experience in eLearning we are here to aid and assist at this critical time. Give us a call today. We can give you a one-on-one walkthrough of any or all of our websites and organise a free trial to get you up and going immediately.

Automated Adaptive Learning is the key

Most online learning systems require teachers to closely monitor and adjust the activities to manage the flow of material to the students. The Adaptive and Mastery Learning systems at the heart of all EdAlive websites are liberatingly simple to use. Teachers don't even have to set the starting level for the students. The Adaptive Learning system automatically levels them and then keeps adjusting the content. Students using EdAlive adaptive learning websites are able to progress with minimal supervision. They are ideal for home learning in such uncertain times.

The EdAlive Central websites:

- Automatically create and manage individualised learning pathways for each student.
- Motivate and engage students in learning through fun.
- Require little or no supervision from teachers.
- Low bandwidth requirements make the websites ideal for use from home.
- Are quick and simple to set up with little staff training required.
- Fully Curriculum Correlated ensuring educational integrity.
- Together the websites comprehensively cover Maths, Reading, Words Skills and Typing for ages 5 - 15.
- Australian owned and operated family business
- Use school subscriptions from home or school.

Build your school's resilience and flexibility

In challenging times you need nimble teaching systems that are able to adapt to confront unforeseen challenges.

The use of EdAlive Central Online Learning websites with your students will build flexibility and resilience into your capacity to facilitate learning both within your school and the homes of your students. Regardless of the impact of the Coronavirus, students will be able to learn anywhere, anytime, both now and in the future.

Together we can partner to ensure that no child is disadvantaged or left behind.

Our goal

To build great educational websites that optimise learning, are liberatingly simple to use and motivate kids to learn through fun.

Kids learn at their own pace

At EdAlive, we build our educational websites knowing that every student's learning needs are different. The very design of our websites has grown from this conviction allowing students to work at their own pace using educational content that is just right for them, while having heaps of fun at the same time.

Automated Adaptive Learning

Our innovative Mastery Learning and automated Adaptive Learning systems optimise learning for each student and are liberatingly simple to use.

Curriculum linked

Our websites are based directly on the relevant curricula and are underpinned by a rigorous academic process. Coverage of the relevant material is extremely comprehensive. The educational activities within our websites are of the highest quality and have been authored by a team of highly experienced educators.

Fully individualised instruction

With EdAlive's websites parents and teachers can individually target each student's learning needs.

- Ideal for classroom use, special needs and gifted and talented programmes.
- Great for special needs students with extensive scaffolding for support.

Over 60 major awards and endorsements

The 60 major awards and endorsements gathered over the years place EdAlive in elite company, being one of the most awarded publishers of educational technology in the world.

All the best,

Graham East
